

Crawley Schools PFI

Value:

£57,000,000

Client:

West Sussex County Council

Location:

South/South West

Description:

Crawley Private Finance Initiative is a 30-year contract to build 3 new secondary schools, for West Sussex County Council. The scheme comprises the new build of Maiden Bower Secondary School and the replacement of Thomas Bennett and Ifield Community College's. Additional funding has been allocated to enable special needs and youth facilities to be incorporated, Adult Education centres at Thomas Bennett and Ifield Community College's to be built, together with building community leisure facilities at Maiden bower Secondary School and Ifield Community College.

RLF Role:

Employer's Agent/Project Manager

Other Project Consultants:

Architect: Feilden Bradley Clegg

Services Engineer: Arup

Structural Engineer: Arup

Contractor:

HBG Construction

Image courtesy of Feilden Bradley Clegg