

Diamond Trading Company Ltd

Value:

£9,600,000 + £12,000,000

Client:

The Diamond Trading Company Ltd, a De Beers Group Company

Location:

London/South East

Description:

A significant new build project in Central London, providing a six storey extension block to the UK headquarters complex of offices and processing facilities for The Diamond Trading Company, the marketing arm of De Beers. The site has severe restrictions and is in a conservation area.

RLF are also appointed to a rolling programme of refurbishment projects in 6 phases helping De Beers to reorganise their entire Central London headquarters, offices and processing facilities.

RLF Role:

Quantity Surveyor
Planning Supervisor

Other Project Consultants:

Architect: Fitzroy Robinson Partnership
Services Engineer: TBA
Structural Engineer: Whitby Bird

Contractor:

HBG

